

FROM the PASTOR

During our post-tornado inspection, we discovered that the tornado has caused extensive damage to the roof of St. Adalbert Church.

The roof was raised up off of the rafters, creating a safety hazard. Our insurance agent required that we not allow anyone into the church until a structural engineer certifies the building for occupancy.

So, until further notice, there will be no liturgies at St. Adalbert Church.